WORK BEGUN ON GREATEST ENGINEERING UNDERTAKING

Ceremonies Mark Commencement Of Labor
On The Aqueduct That Will Supply
Gotham With Water From The Catskills.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Peekskill, N. Y., June 20.—With impressive ceremonies near here today work was formally inaugurated in one of the greatest engineering undertakings in the world's history—the aqueduct which is to supply New York city with water from the Catskill mountain region. The aqueduct will be the greatest of ancient or modern times. It will cost $161,000,000—$20,000,000 in excess of the estimated cost of the Panama canal and thirty times the cost of the Corinth canal, which the Roman Empire under Nero undertook but did not finish.

A large official party from New York city participated in the ceremonies marking the inauguration of the work of construction. Bishop Potter offered prayer. J. Edward Simmons, president of the board of water supply, made the welcoming address, and Mayor McClellan delivered the principal address of the day. Charles N. Chadwick made the formal presentation of the spade to the contractors and the exercises were brought to a close with a benediction by Right Rev. Father Lavelle, vicar-general of the diocese of New York.

It is estimated that it will take between fifteen and twenty years to complete the aqueduct. When finished it will increase the water supply of the metropolis by 500,000,000 gallons every twenty-four hours, less under the Hudson river more than one hundred miles away from the seven artificial lakes to be constructed in the Catskills, and of these sources that at Ashokan alone will contain more water than all three of the Lakes of Killarney.

The building of the aqueduct, which will have the capacity of a small river, beneath the Hudson river and the irregular country adjacent known as the Highlands is an extremely difficult problem. An enormous territory must be drained, whose northern boundary is 130 miles from New York city. In an area of over several hundred square miles entire towns must be destroyed to make room for reservoirs. It has been decided to carry the tunnel beneath the famous head of the Panama canal and thirty times the cost of the Corinth canal, which the Roman Empire under Nero undertook but did not finish.

The aqueduct will be covered throughout its entire length. Much of it will pass far below the surface, where it will be necessary to tunnel. In places where the aqueduct will be above or near the surface it will be built in the form of a trench and later arched over. In such cases even the roof will not be left exposed, but will be covered with earth and stone to strengthen it against all possible attacks of time and weather.

The aqueduct will carry thirty times as much water as did the famous aqueducts of Rome combined. The twelve reservoirs which must be constructed to hold the enormous flow of water from the various watersheds of the Catskills and adjacent hills will far exceed in size anything of the kind in the world. One of these reservoirs will be 12 miles long with an average width of 1½ miles. The Ashokan reservoir alone will have a capacity of 170,000,000 gallons, or double the present water supply of New York city.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.
It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. We saw that original and highly vital principle, not such leading accomplishments were over to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and yellow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

ALMOST TOO HONEST.

Methodist Preacher Sends Back Part of Damage Money He Did Not Use.

"Yes," said the railway claims agent, "we come across queer things sometimes. The queerest thing in my experience was the case of a Methodist minister. How honest those Methodists are—the most honest of all sects."

"This man was hurt in a rear-end collision, and we gave him $5,000 damages. At the end of a year we got a letter from him that ran something like this:

"My salary is $2,000, and the accident caused me to lose it for a twelvemonth. My medical expenses were $750. My board at a mountain sanatorium for six months was $850. Other expenses due to this accident were, in round numbers, $1,000. Total, $4,600. You gave me $5,000. Now I am back in the pulpit again, as well and strong as ever, and I have $400 of your money on my hands. Not being entitled to that sum, I do what any other Methodist minister would do in my place—I return the money to you as per check enclosed."

"How was that for honesty?" said the claims agent. "The Methodists are a wonderful lot. We sent the $400 back to this honest minister, and he gave it to charity in our name."

A New Opening.

A London paper says that nurses skilled in the diseases of cats and dogs can obtain regular employment at ten dollars a week for looking after sick pedigreed pets. There is a training school for animals' nurses in Pimlico. A certificate is granted to apt pupils after six months' experience in the care of sick creatures of all sorts, cats and dogs particularly. Women make much better kennel nurses than men do and there is a growing demand, especially in big country houses, for the services of women able skillfully to carry out a veterinary surgeon's treatment. One successful dogs' nurse holds the full certificate of a well-known London hospital, but she prefers to devote her nursing talents to canines rather than to humans.

Many Biographies of Irving.
H. B. Irving and his brother Laurence Irving, are to publish a biography of the late Sir Henry Irving. No less than six books have been written about Sir Henry since his death, and there are at least two others to follow—one by Austin Brereton and another by Joseph Hatton. The final life by the sons will not be published for several years, and for satisfactory reasons. It promises to be an important book, for both sons have demonstrated that they have literary ability.

BRAINY BACK STOPS.

President Hedges Tells How Catchers Can Help Pitchers.

RELIEVE HIM OF MUCH WORRY

By Signaling For Proper Curves, Watching Base Runners, Etc., the "Heady" Catcher Leaves Pitcher Free to Attend to His Chief Work.

"It's a great thing to have a catcher with a head on him," quoth Robert Lee Hedges, of the St. Louis Americans recently. "It leaves the busy pitcher free to pay attention to his grips on the ball and takes the worry of deciding what kind of ball he shall pitch, or what the base runners are doing, or how the field is playing, or how many are out, off his mind, and all he has to do is to get in there and pitch."

"The pitcher is a busy fellow during a game. He is in every play—in fact, starts every play. He must throw a variety of fine shoots, curves, slow, ups, downs, and spit balls during the afternoon. To do this properly he must use the very nicest adjustment of the fingers and the very acutest of control. The better his control the better his pitching."

"Now, if a gentleman has, in addition to pitching, to decide for himself what sort of a ball he shall pitch, and how many of the other gentlemen are out, and just what the gentleman at the stick can hit and what he cannot hit, and what the gentlemen on base are doing and are likely to do, and how his field is located, and give the signals, you can very easily appreciate how very much the difficulties of his position are enhanced, but let him have nothing to do but throw the ball a good catcher signals for, and how the burden is lightened!"

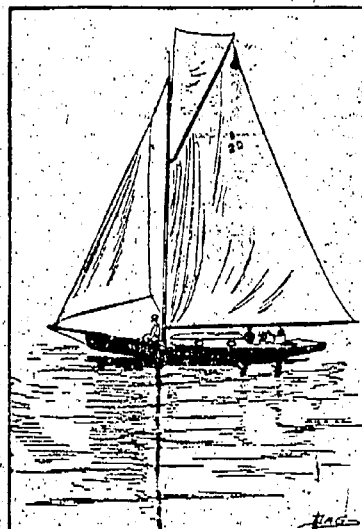

"This ability to think for pitchers is what makes O'Connor of our staff such a good catcher. The pitchers have confidence in him. When he is receiving they pay no attention to anything but

YACHTING PLANS.

Great Season For Amateur Seamen Now Opening—Big Events.

The yachting season, which is now opening throughout the country, gives promise of being the best in the history of the sport.

Yacht clubs and associations have had hard work arranging for all the races that are to be sailed, and great care has been taken, as far as possible, to prevent any very serious conflict of dates. The associations that are formed to arrange for such troubles as may arise over dates have done much for the sport and have not only brought about uniform rules of measurement, time allowance and racing, but have settled many other little difficulties.

and made all plain sailing for the yachtsman. There are associations on Long Island sound, Gravesend bay, New York; the Hudson river, Narragansett bay, Massachusetts bay, on the great lakes, Mississippi river, Pacific coast, Delaware river, Maine coast waters, etc., each one of these having its own schedule, and this year these schedules have been so arranged that the most important of the racing will be over by the beginning of September.

Then the crack yachts will journey to Hampton Roads and take part in the racing arranged in connection with the Jamestown exposition for the president's cup, the King Edward cup, the Sir Thomas Lipton cup and other trophies that will be emblematic of the championship. In these waters and, in fact, all along the Atlantic coast Memorial day marked the opening of the racing season.

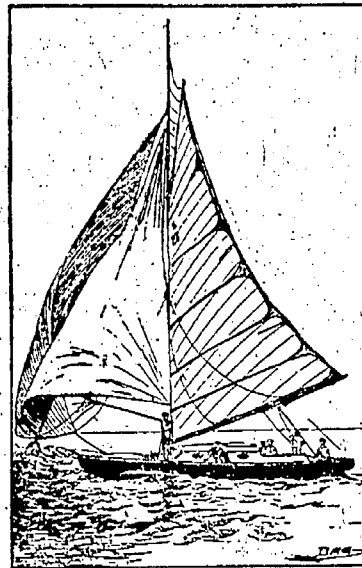

There are two international contests arranged on this side of the Atlantic and two on the other. The Royal Canadian Yacht club has challenged for the Canada cup, now held by the Rochester Yacht club, and the races are to be sailed off Charlotte on Lake Ontario in August.

The Canadians are building four yachts for this contest, three of which are from designs by Fife, Mylne and Payne, and one is by Andrews.

To defend the cup the Rochester men are having a boat built by Herreshoff in which they put great faith. The races for this cup this year are for twenty-seven footers, and it is expected that some will go to Jamestown for the racing there.

The other international race for this side has been arranged by the Sheldrake Yacht club of Nova Scotia and the Massachusetts Dory association. Three boats are to represent each side, and all the clubs in Massachusetts waters having fleets of dories are to take part in the trial races to be sailed shortly, when the challengers will be selected. The Nova Scotians will also hold trial races, and the international race will be sailed in July.

August will be cruising month, as usual. The New York Yacht club fleet will rendezvous at Glen Cove on August 5 and proceed by easy stages as far as

THE TYRO, OWNED BY W. H. JOYCE, WHICH WILL RACE ON NEW ENGLAND COAST.

Vineyard Haven, Mass. Off Newport, R. I., there will be races for the Astor cups for sloops and schooners, now held by Humber and Queen respectively, and the race for the King's cup for all yachts in one class, which went to F. M. Smith's Effort last year.

The Brooklyn Yacht club and the Philadelphia Corinthian Yacht club will cruise to Hampton Roads, and, late in the month the American Power Boat association fleet of power boats and the Motor Boat club fleet will also go thither to be present at the motor boat races that are to be held there early in September.

Long distance racing will be popular this year.

BIG ROWING MEET.

Intercollegiate Regatta at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Now at Hand.

NAVY ENTERS FOR THE FRAY

This Year's Senior Eight Oared Race Will Have Seven Competitors. Georgetown Draws Best Course, Columbia the Worst—Other Events.

The coming intercollegiate rowing regatta at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., will have seven competitors in the great annual race for senior eight oared crews. The watermen of the United States Naval academy at Annapolis make up the additional crew.

The list of entrants is as follows: Cornell, University of Pennsylvania, University of Wisconsin, Columbia, Georgetown, Syracuse university and the navy.

The navy eight oared senior crew has already defeated Columbia, and Columbia also defeated Harvard. Consequently it may be readily seen that the midshipmen will probably put up a strong fight for premier honors.

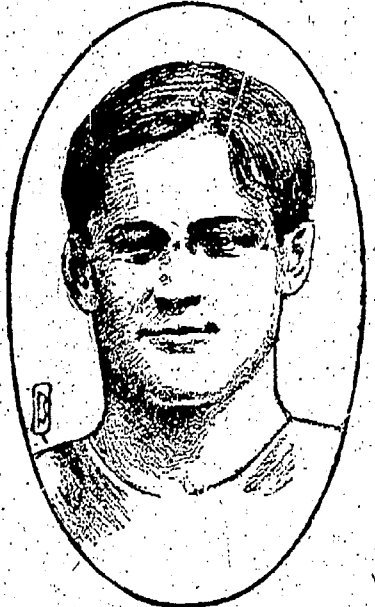

The courses of the variety eights in the race will be: No. 1, Columbia; No. 2, Cornell; No. 3, Syracuse; No. 4, Pennsylvania; No. 5, Georgetown; No. 6, Wisconsin; and No. 7, the Naval academy. Georgetown has the cream of the river, with everything in her favor, and if her crew can travel in such fast company it ought to do well. Syracuse, however, has a good place, and even money will be a good bet on her. In the variety four oared and in the freshman race the lines will stretch in this way:

Varsity Four—Syracuse, No. 1; Pennsylvania, No. 2; Columbia, No. 3, and Cornell, No. 4.

The Freshman—Cornell, No. 1; Wisconsin, No. 2; Syracuse, No. 3; Pennsylvania, No. 4, and Columbia, No. 5.

At the present time the Columbia varsity boat is made up in the same order as when it beat Harvard by half a length and just as it was when it lost to the navy by one and a half lengths.

The lineup follows: Snavely, bow; Jordan, 2; Spalding, 3; Gillies, 4; Von Saltza, 5; G. Mackenzie, 6; Captain Boyle, 7; Cerussi, stroke, and Winslow, coxswain. J. Mackenzie, a veteran of last year, who was laid up with the mumps just before the Harvard race, is recuperating in the stroke's seat of the second boat, and he may possibly row in the first boat on the day of the race. There may be several other changes.

Coch Rice of Columbia recently received the official announcement of the courses the crews will follow, and he expressed his feelings rather forcibly when he found that course No. 1 had been allotted the blue and white varsity eight. That course is commonly known as the "hoodoo" channel, as it is close in to the west shore of the Hudson, where very little benefit can be had from the tide. For some time Rice has been hoping against hope that his proteges might be the favored ones and get the center of the river, but the fates were against him.

The victory which Columbia university's eight oared crew won over Harvard has furnished an unanswerable argument for those rowing experts who contend that the crews which grow at Poughkeepsie are superior to either Harvard or Yale, whose crews have so far refused to enter the big intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson, choosing instead to flock by themselves on the Thames at New London, Conn.

The two successive and decisive victories which Cornell has won from Harvard proved beyond question that the winner of the Poughkeepsie regatta deserved to be ranked as the intercollegiate champion of America. But no one was prepared to urge that the tilters of the Poughkeepsie regatta could beat the victor at New London. Yet now that Columbia, whose eight has almost annually finished almost in the rear at Poughkeepsie, has taken the measure of the Harvard eight nothing more need be said on the subject.

Van Camp's PORK AND BEANS

The Mouth-Watering Memory in the Childish Mind.

BAKED WITH TOMATO SAUCE

When the children get hungry and try to think of something extra good which they would like to have, then comes the pungent recollection of the last time mother had Van Camp's Pork and Beans with Tomato Sauce for dinner.

It's a memory that makes their little mouths fairly water.

For what is so good to the childish taste as a steaming hot dish of Van Camp's, with its savory odor and all its appetizing deliciousness?

And what is so nourishing to the childish body as the nutritious, healthful, vitalizing Van Camp beans cooked in the Van Camp way?

The children know what's good!

How they revel in the appetizing goodness of the nutty-flavored Van Camp beans—in the piquant tang of the delicious Van Camp Tomato Sauce, made from vine-ripened Tomatoes fresh from the garden!

Don't ever disappoint the children by having to tell them that you are "out of Van Camp's." Always keep a supply on hand—a dozen cans at least. And be sure you order and Huxley was once talking to Sir William Gull about the healing power of nature. "Stuff!" said Gull, "nine times out of ten nature does not want to cure the man. She wants to put him in his coffin!"

Misunderstood.

Little Johnny was a tot of four years when he came running to his mother to ask her if his face was dirty. When told it was clean and why did he ask, he replied that a lady said he had black eyes.

Cause for Indignation. The little fellow Arvid is the son of our coachman and is so unwelcome a caller around Jennie's kitchen that the other day the girl slammed the door in his face. A few minutes afterwards the tiny Swede was heard telling the incident to a neighbor indignantly exclaiming: "Why, she shut the door right in my looks!"—Chicago Tribune.

Had His Fears.

One day while riding on one of the suburban cars, two boys of about ten years of age were overheard discussing what they were going to do when they became men. One of them was not decided, but the other one remarked emphatically: "I always did want to be a boat builder, but I will bet a nickel that I will end up in the ministry yet."—Chicago Tribune.

FEAR

In the lexicon of finance there should be no such word as "fear." Prudence, caution, moderation, conservatism are safety-brakes on the wheels of enterprise, but fear is the broken rail which throws the train off the track.

Fear paralyzes enterprise, and produces panic. It is the only human emotion of which it can be said that it has no redeeming purpose. Even greed is constructive. It produces something. Fear never made two blades of grass grow where one grew before. Hatred is abhorrent, but even it is better than fear because it may after all be directed against something that is wrong, but fear never helped a good cause or worked against an evil one.

Fear has absolutely no place in the business world. Fear is almost criminal in a banker or any one who has the care of other people's money or property. Fear of poverty is harder to bear than poverty itself. Fear of failure never contributed to success. Fear never healed disease or cured an ill or reformed an abuse, or built a business or founded an empire, or checked a trade reaction.

JAPAN

"The Japanese vice minister of finance, now in New York," says in an exclusive interview in the Wall Street Journal, "that thought of war between his country and the United States is worse than absurd. Yet he admits that there are jingoes in Japan as in this country."

"The jingoes often made a great deal of trouble. Sometimes they are able to force a war to which the sober judgment of the more intelligent people of the country are opposed. It is reassuring to have the word of the Japanese vice minister that we need not fear the jingoes of Japan."

"There are two kinds of nations which can afford to go to war. The first is the bankrupt nation which has nothing to lose. The bankrupt nation, like the bankrupt railroad, is a factor of disturbance. The second is the rich nation which can pay the cost of war."

"Japan belongs to neither of these classes. It cannot afford to go to war now, and at the same time is not so poor that it can risk war."

There is still much to be done to the sidewalks throughout the city, but the Masons have taken an initial step in putting down a good substantial cement walk in front of their block on South Main street that if the plan is continued in the next block and then in front of the Myers House would give the city a really prosperous appearance.

The South Main street sewer is now laid and the next thing to do is to bring the street into condition for travel. For many weeks it has been closed to teams and the delight of the residents in again being able to drive to their front doors is felt on every hand.

There appears to be a movement on foot to keep cows, especially brindle ones, off of the golf links in the future.

Russia again has its hands full of real heart interest with the Duma gone and revolution again staring the leaders in the face.

Roosevelt is at Oyster Bay, but thus far there have been no utterances from Sagamore Hill that are worthy of comment.

Read the circus bills announcing the great, only and famous Nonesuch Bros. circus will be here the Fourth of July and then smile in anticipation.

Mrs. Potter Palmer is not going to marry any English nobleman unless she wants to. All sensational newspapers please take notice.

The finance committee for the Fourth of July celebration have done their work nobly and the celebration is assured.

Pittsburg is again in the midst of a typhoid epidemic. The Smoky city should learn better after so many epidemics.

If some nature fakir wants to experiment with mad dogs there is no doubt that the opportunity will be given him.

Summer resorters are near to nature and the near wild. That is their friends are reading their letters.

Clean streets on the Fourth will do much to impress the visitors that Janesville is worth visiting.

Michigan picks up courage now that the summer boarder begins his pilgrimage across the deep blue.

Fast trains should try to keep hold of the rails, provided for them by the directors of the company.

Walter Wellman and his hunt for the North Pole is establishing a new route for tourists.

The Fourth in Janesville promises to be more than interesting from more point than one.

Oyster Bay is so quiet thus far even Chancellor Day can not find anything to find fault with.

Wall street has become so tame that it will eat out of the hand nowadays.

The legislature at last begins to settle upon a date for adjournment.

PRESS COMMENT.

Even He is Handicapped.
Exchange: Taft is a strong man, but even he has a liver.Its Fighting Chance.
Fond du Lac Bulletin: The straw hat still seems to have a fighting chance.Mission of Picture Postal.
Milwaukee Sentinel: The postal card and furnishes a lot of light summer reading to many a rural postmaster.Substitute For "Chauffeur."
Exchange: "Automon" is suggested by a correspondent of the New York World as a better word than chauffeur. But if the automon is a woman?Simply Outrageous.
Chicago Tribune: It will be too bad if the war between the telegraph companies and the operators hinders the transmission of news from the peace conference at The Hague.Another Lie Nailed.
Exchange: It is denied that the president said "Cut it out!" when those Georgia orators arose to speak. He has a short and ugly word to describe the man that started the story.Hobson Has Declared War.
Milwaukee Sentinel: We regret to report that Richmond Pearson Hobson has declared war on Japan. Isn't there any way to get him and Count Okuma together to a mutual finish?Uncle Isaac's Expenses.
Exchange: According to the expense account filed at the office of the secretary of state, Isaac Stephenson of Marinette spent $386.71 to be elected United States senator.Speaks Adversely.
Milwaukee Journal: "Uncle Isaac" says "La Follette will get the vote of Wisconsin" for the presidential nomination. Isaac probably knows what it will cost, so he speaks adversely.California Triflers.
Newark Star: Out in California there is a $200 chicken that talks and cusses, so a dispatch says, but that's probably just to get a nature fake rise out of the president on account of the Japanese troubles.An Emaciated Version.
Green Bay Gazette: The tablet erected to the memory of Gen. Sherman and bearing the inscription, "War is cruelty and you can not refine it" does not purport to be a reproduction of what the general really said war was.More Knot-holes Demanded.
Chicago Record-Herald: A St. Louis boy who climbed a telegraph pole to see a ball game was fatally burned by a live wire. Live wires should be placed in conduits and there ought to be more knot-holes in the fences around baseball grounds.Doesn't Seem Fair.
Kenosha News: The proposition of Bishop Gratton that society should establish a boycott on all divorcees is essentially unfair. Why not equally so on the men? Again, so long as the churches make marriages so dead easy, why ostracize the victims?Money For Road-Building.
Eau Claire Telegram: The bill appropriating $10,000 for a practical demonstration of road building in Wisconsin has met with favor among legislators at Madison and at last report was expected to win. The amount, however, seems very small for the purpose.Drawing A Moral.
Clinton Banner: It was demonstrated yesterday in the municipal court at Janesville that a person who will perjure himself to obtain liquor and then testify to the fact ought to be punished if the man who sold it to him is to be held responsible.

Greetings to Taft.

Eau Claire Leader: With such greetings as "Next president of the nation," Secretary of War Taft has swept through Minnesota and in spite of a little attack of indigestion, seems bound to connect the Dakotas to the tail of his boom.

Newest Thing in Nature.

Superior Telegram: A North Dakota man discovered a red rat with pink eyes playing with a jack rabbit. We hope this resident of a prohibition state will not get into a controversy with the president like the one Dr. Long got into over the doctor's discoveries of a similar kind.

In Practice at Poughkeepsie.

Evening Wisconsin: The University of Wisconsin's oarsmen are reported to be displaying fine form in the practice rowing at Poughkeepsie. If they do as well on the day of the race as they did when they were taking the measure of Syracuse, recently, the cardinal flag may lead the way across the winning line.

Schmitz' Just Dues.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The extreme penalty provided by law for the office of which Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco has been convicted is five years in prison. At the same time there are enough other indictments still pending against Schmitz to keep him in prison for the rest of his natural life, and considering his offense it would really serve him right.

Wails of the Idolatrous.

Detroit Free Press: The La Follette republicans at Madison and elsewhere are very much disgruntled because Secretary Taft did not eulogize their pet in his Madison speech. In referring to former Senator Spooner he was speaking of one who had passed out of the public service and to whom he could consequently pay a tribute without incurring the charge of an interested motive in so doing while to laud La Follette under existing conditions would render him liable to that charge. Political conditions have got to a contemptible pass indeed when a tribute to a Wisconsin man, recognized as the country over as a statesman, excites the ire of Wisconsin citizens, however idolatrous they may be.

SHE NEEDED ANOTHER HAND.

They Enjoyed the Show Immensely, but Failed to Applaud.

In the parquet at the Orpheum last night sat a young man and his best girl. People behind them noticed that the young couple seemed to enjoy the show immensely, but neither would applaud, says the Denver Post. They would look at each other and smile and say "Fine!" "Isn't that great!" and other such things, but they would not applaud. Everybody else near by was applauding, and that started the people behind the young couple to wondering why they did not clap their hands and show their appreciation substantially. Finally James H. Cullen came on the stage and began his singing stunt. His first two songs made great hits, but still the young couple did not applaud. His third song was even better than the other two, and it was then that the mystery as to why the young people did not applaud was explained to those behind them. When Cullen finished the song the girl turned to her escort. "John," she said, loud enough for those behind to hear, "you'll have to let me hand a minute. I've just got to applaud this man."

The Best Drug.

There is no drug which can compete with cheerfulness. A jolly whole-hearted sunny physician is worth more than all the remedies in an apothecary shop. A writer known for his cheerful sayings received a letter from a lady, stating that one of his humorous poems had saved her life. —Success Magazine.

Honest in Face of Temptation.

Little Ethel had just returned from church and whispered to her mother in great confidence: "Deacon Brewster passed the money, but I didn't take any."

RUSHING WORK FOR A BIG CELEBRATION

Everything Points to Wonderful Day on July the Fourth—The Decoration Committee.

When the Fourth of July really comes everything will be ready, but in the meantime there is plenty to be done to make the day a success. This evening the Decoration committee is to meet in the New Gas Light office at seven o'clock and a full attendance is requested. Matters relative to the street decorations, illuminations and fireworks must be decided upon at this meeting. W. P. Sayles is chairman of the committee. Hans Jaekle, who has charge of the United Spanish War Veterans' part in the Nonesuch Bros. Parade, desires it announced that he has opened recruiting offices in the Harry L. Gifford Camp's rooms in the Carle block and will be there every evening to talk with prospective candidates for his battery cavalry troop, wagon train and infantry. He issues a call for any who have horses, saddles, uniforms, or parts of them they are willing to loan, campaign hats that can be borrowed, guns, muskets, sabres, any one who has six mules for an hour in the afternoon. He also needs many more men to fill out his quota. This afternoon George Simpson, D. W. Watt and Chas. Putnam went to Chicago to secure some stellar attractions for the day's program. Trick bicycle riders, a tight-rope walker, a balloon ascension, an airship, and other subjects have been discussed, but nothing definite decided upon. Mr. Watt will also look for some new features for his parade. Enthusiastic meetings of the general committee and the chairman of the different subcommittees were held last evening in the New Gas Light office and all plans were thoroughly discussed. Special attention was called to the morning parade committee, who will get down to work at once and promise great things. The prizes offered by the Eagles for the best exhibits in morning and afternoon parades and for the best automobile parade in the evening are being well received by the citizens generally and the generosity of the lodge commented upon every favorably. Other lodges will meet before the Fourth to plan for the part they will take in the parades. On Monday evening next the meeting of the afternoon parade committee and all those who will take part is to be held in the assembly room at the city hall and then the procession that has made Janesville famous will be definitely decided upon.

THE STORY OF THE OUTLAW.

Bad Men of the West Classified and Analyzed.

Emerson Hough constitutes himself the historian of the outlaw, believing the truth about "the bad man" of the west is sufficiently thrilling and meaning to present merely truth. There were outlaws of all nationalities, according to Mr. Hough, but the prize-taker among them was the western white bad man, who in a land which the law could not protect, like the great region on the frontier, reverted to the ways of Goth and Teuton for bears. There were genuine bad men and imitation bad men, and Mr. Hough thus differentiates them: "Throughout the west there are two sorts of wolves—the coyote and the gray wolf. Either will kill and both are lovers of blood. One's yellow at heart and the other is game all the way through. Outwardly both are wolves, and in appearance they sometimes grade toward each other so closely it is hard to determine the species. The gray wolf is a warrior and is respected; the coyote is a sneak and a murderer, and his name is a term of reproach throughout the west."

Lonely.

"So you are to be married again? But do you remember that at the death of your first wife you declared that your grief was too great—that you could not endure it? Oh, you misunderstood me! I merely said that I could not endure it alone."

Novel Carnival Idea.

At a recent carnival at Graceland, Austria, no admission tickets were used, but everyone who entered the theater was weighed and had to pay one cent a pound. Several fat men and women refused to meet the scales.

TO ASK $20,000 FOR REMODELING

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS HAVE ACTED ON THIRD WARD BUILDING.

$35,000 PLANS ABANDONED

For Amount Requested Handsome, Modern and Sanitary Structure Could Be Constructed.

At the regular meeting of the common council held Monday evening the Janesville board of education will ask for the appropriation of $20,000 for the remodeling of the Jefferson school building in the third ward. For this amount there could be made a structure, handsome in architectural lines, modern in its arrangement, safe, in case of fire or panic, sanitary as regards its toilet rooms and heating system and efficiently lighted. The original remodeling plans, which call for an expenditure of $35,000, would, of course, make a larger and better appearing schoolhouse containing fifteen rooms, but the school commissioners believed eleven rooms sufficient for the present and in considering their appeal for funds took into consideration the present indebtedness of the city and the fact that new bridges would soon be needed at Fourth avenue and Milwaukee street.

For ten years more the Jefferson building has not been considered suitable for school purposes. When it was abandoned as a high school and put in use for grades it was large enough to accommodate school children of the ward but the attendance has increased until the average for the past year was 473. In some rooms meant for forty pupils seventy have been accommodated during the past year. Not only is the building crowded but the ventilation is exceedingly poor and the lighting is poor, there being but half enough windows and some cases the light is allowed to go over the student's right shoulder instead of left.

There is some talk at present of opening the school building Sunday in order that residents of the city, especially taxpayers, may see for themselves the need of the $20,000 improvements.

AN ORGANIZATION COMMITTEE NAMED

Managers of Six Amateur Ball Teams Conferred Last Evening Mercantile League Project.

In all probability the proposed Janesville Mercantile Baseball league will be formed. Managers of the Lewis Knitting Company, Parker Pen, Gazette Printing Company, Wisconsin Carriage Company, Y. M. C. A. and Chicago & North-Western roundhouse teams met at the Y. M. C. A. last evening and conferred on the project. After considerable discussion in regard to the use of outside players an organization committee was named. This consists of George Adkins of the "Spinners," John L. Schuler of the "Penmakers," and Ralph Palmer of the "Rails." This body will formulate a code of laws and call a meeting for the election of officers and schedule board.

IT WAS A DEER THAT HARRY CARTER SAW

Golfers Whose Vision Was Doubtful Really Did See a Tame Deer Tuesday.

Anyone who doubts H. G. Carter or A. P. Burnham or who scoffed at their eyesight when they reported they saw a deer near No. 4 hole at the golf links on Tuesday last, must take to the tall timber. They really did see a deer. It is a pet of Fred Gehri, who lives on Chatham street, and during the storm Tuesday it jumped a five-foot three-inch fence and escaped and has not been recaptured as yet. Mr. Gehri secured the deer when a fawn in Northern Michigan and has had it for three years. This sets at doubt all question as to the story of the golfers who reported having seen it near the golf links.

BUTTRESSES OF TWO ARCHES UNSOUND

And C. & N. W. Ry. Co. May Have to Rebuild with Concrete at Claron Street and Western Avenue.

In making preparations to enlarge the Claron street and Western avenue arches for the double tracks, the contractors in the employ of the Chicago & North-Western railroad company have discovered that the stone used in the construction of the buttresses, particularly where covered by soil, has crumbled away to such an extent that it will probably have to be entirely replaced by concrete work. According to some who have inspected the "ruins" there is danger that the masonry may collapse and tumble in upon some passing vehicle. The arches themselves are said to be in good condition.

CLOVER-SEED WAS PLANTED IN SACK

William Finley Claims to Have Been Tricked by Neighbor and Starts a Damage Action.

When one of the clover seed, which he had hired a neighbor to plant a year ago last spring, sprouted, William L. Finley, who resides on a farm west of Alton and just south of the Blaisdell place, was chagrined. All during the summer of 1906 he waited and when fall came and the field was still barren, his disgust knew no bounds. Evidently he had paid $12 a bushel for worthless seed. But while he was planning this spring it is alleged that the plow struck into a yielding cloth-bound object which attracted his immediate attention and which upon examination proved to be a sack of clover seed, identical in size and general aspects with the one he had delivered over into the hands of the said neighbor a twelvemonth before. Wherefore Mr. Finley has commenced in Judge Reeder's court a civil action to recover $25 damages from Fred Wadel, tenant of the adjoining premises, claiming that the defendant agreed to do the planting with his seed for a consideration and as a matter of fact assured him, afterwards that the work was done as agreed. Constable Dulin went out today to serve summons and complaint on Wadel.

LOCAL LACONICS

Gypsies for Time Being: Mr. and Mrs. Glen Burdick of Janesville are enjoying a few days of carefree gypsy life in northern Illinois. They are traveling with two covered wagons and several horses which Mr. Burdick industriously offers to "swap" with wayfarers encountered on the highways. They carry a complete cooking outfit and camp each evening at the edge of towns or along the countryside, wherever the spirit moves them to tarry.

Runaway on Main Street: A broncho hitched in front of Sutherland's bookstore broke away while crowds were passing the Milwaukee and Main street intersection last evening and made a wild dash up North Main street. By the greatest good fortune no one was run down. The owner of the rig was a man in the employ of James Campion. John Rabyow jumped the horse on a bicycle and captured it near the standpipe before any injury was done. It was placed in Ryan's livery barn for the night.

Backwardness of Corn: Dr. William Horne, who returned from a trip to Chicago yesterday, says that in the fields all along the right-of-way he noticed that the corn was just coming out of the ground, a backward condition almost unparalleled in recent history. The asparagus bed in his local garden began to produce just one month later than last year.

New Sidewalk: A new cement sidewalk is being laid in front of the Masonic block on South Main street.

Ditch is Filled: The sewer on South Main street has all been laid and work of leveling off the surface where the big ditch was is being accomplished slowly.

MILTON AVENUE RESIDENTS MAD

HAVE MADE COMPLAINT AGAINST SUNDAY BASEBALL.

FANS TRAMPLE DOWN LAWNS

Management of Team Has Decided to Schedule Games Out of City.

Milton avenue residents, particularly those near the entrance to the fair grounds, have made complaint to Mayor Reddies, to the police department and to other officials about the conduct of the fans attending the Sunday baseball games. They allege that their lawns are cut up, shrubbery and flowers trampled down and in fact, all their efforts to make the city beautiful are undone. All these charges have been referred to the management of the Janesville City team. Though the club promoters are inclined to disbelieve many of the accusations they are not spoiling for a fight. It has been decided to play at the fair grounds this Sunday, meeting the Rockford Drexels according to announcement. Hereafter as many dates as possible will be made for games outside the city. This opposition from property-owners is a surprise to the management and the general public. It was thought earlier in the season that sentiment against making Sunday an amusement day might be aroused.

WILLIAM H. GRAVES, JR., TO BE MARRIED

Former Janesville Boy Will Wed Miss Julia Green of Burlington, Iowa.

Word has been received in the city of the coming marriage of Miss Julia Green, of Burlington, Iowa, to Mr. William H. Graves, Jr., of Chicago, formerly of this city. The wedding will take place Wednesday, July 2, at Corpus Christi Church, Chicago. Mr. Graves graduated from the manual training department of the Janesville high school in 1905 and has followed the mechanical drawing line of work. For a few years he worked for the Crane company in Chicago and is now in business for himself.

CLUBBED OUT OF AFTON LAST NIGHT

Lawless Beloit Youths, Who Had Made Night Hideous for Three Evenings, Chased by Irate Villagers.

Every evening this week bands of Beloit's lawless element have been stealing rides to Alton on freight trains and making night hideous with their drunken revels. Villagers whose slumbers were disturbed by the obscene language, oaths, and howls of youths ranging in age from 14 to 20 years at length grew weary of the invasions and under the direction of Constable Frank Corvill a band of ten citizens were armed with stout clubs and concealed near the rendezvous last evening. About eight o'clock the gang of about twenty arrived, and commenced a repetition of their orgies. Whereupon the outraged citizens, led by the constable, fell upon the invaders and pursued them about two miles down the tracks, giving no quarter and soundly belaboring all the big and little imps within reach. Finally, just as the "return freight train" was passing, the Beloiters were driven pell-mell down the steep railroad bank. The attacking party then turned homeward, conscious of a good night's work and satisfied that the unwelcome visitors, after walking all the way back to Beloit, would scarcely be in a mood to renew their visits for a long time to come.

BELOIT PHONE COS. IN CONSOLIDATION

New Concern is Capitalized at $150,000

Articles of Organization Filed.

Statements have been made in these columns from time to time to the effect that the independent and Wisconsin Telephone companies were preparing to consolidate their systems in the city of Beloit, the stock of the new company being divided on a pro rata basis according to the figures of the appraisers. Articles of Association of the Beloit Home Telephone Co., the new organization, were filed with the register of deeds yesterday. The incorporators are Alonzo Burt, Mathias Joseph Ward, and Walter Monk Brittan. The concern is capitalized at $150,000 divided into 1,500 shares and the first annual meeting is set for the second Tuesday in February, 1908.

A circular designed to sell mining stock, says: "The depositing of money in a bank is not investing from a business man's standpoint. It is a process by which you get a small 2 per cent and the banker who invests your money makes the big profits. The money which you are afraid to invest he will put in some mine, railroad, or insurance."

This bank does not invest the money in its charge in mining, railroad or insurance stocks. We do not take chances with your money though we do make a legitimate profit on the transaction. The bank's capital and surplus guarantee your deposit and it is ready for you when you want it. We will pay 3 per cent interest on the money if you will take a certificate of deposit for it and will cheerfully furnish you with all the conveniences and accommodations that the modern bank has for its customers.

Candidates seem to have outlined their plans of action, and all have a clear idea of what is before them, and are calling together their forces for the friendly fray. No doubt everybody in this city will be interviewed either by the candidates or by their enthusiastic friends enlisting their support in the contest. It would be well for those who have not as yet been approached to remember that their help is wanted and will be asked for by some of the contestants, and as it costs them nothing to vote, they should prepare themselves for the emergency.

Don't forget that voting certificates are issued to old subscribers when paying their subscriptions if requested. Voting certificates can be obtained at The Daily Gazette office or from any of the contestants, or from the collector calling at your house. Ask for certificates.

PRIZES FOR FOURTH HUNG UP BY EAGLES

Cash Awards and Silver Loving Cup Offered for Best Exhibits in the Three Parades.

At a meeting of Janesville Aerie No. 724, Fraternal Order of Eagles, last evening, the enthusiasm manifested for the approaching Fourth of July celebration was given material expression by a decision to hang up three prizes for the three great features of the day's celebration. These awards are to be as follows: fifteen dollars in gold for the best display in the civic parade, fifteen dollars in gold for the best display in the One-shed Brothers' circus parade, a silver loving cup valued at $30 for the best decorated automobile in the evening parade. A committee of disinterested businessmen will act as judges. This announcement should and will give impetus to the preparations for the day and the public-spirited action of the lodge will meet with general commendation. At the meeting of the committees it developed that the work was progressing very satisfactorily in every department and that the outlook for the most notable celebration in the history of the city was exceedingly bright.

HEAT NO BARRIER TO THE MEETING

REV. SCOVILLE CONTINUES TO CREATE RELIGIOUS EXCITEMENT.

INTEREST DOES NOT LAG

Banner Meetings Despite the Torrid Weather Shows the Great Work Being Done.

Interest in the revival meeting continues from night to night. The intense heat of these June days has no terrors for the people. Wednesday was "church day" and after an hour spent in devotion at the church scores of faithful workers were sent out to take the "religious census" of the city. The result of this work has not been made public but it is expected that all the churches will be profited by the census. Many children not attending Sunday school were found, people having no connection with any church, new comers, persons with letters in "trunks," and to all of these a kindly invitation was given to become identified with the church of their choice and in this way become a factor for good in the city.

The Power of Thought
The theme for Dr. Scoville's sermon last evening was "pardon." The text was: "Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord and He will have mercy upon him and to our God for He will abundantly pardon." The doctor gave great emphasis to the fact that thought determines character. No man commits a theft or a murder without having "thought" it out again and again long before his crime was committed. A man who would turn away from his sins must turn away from his thought. Hundreds of men live in hell constantly because of their thoughts. They are in company with the vilest characters and suffer keenest remorse and shame in their better moments because of the people with whom they have associated in thought. As a man thinketh in his heart so is he for out of the heart are the issues of life.

A Practical Preacher
The absence of any thing like a theological discussion is very noticeable in the preaching of the evangelist. His appeal is for a better life. Recognizing the difference between ethics and theology he places emphasis on the life evidently believing that with a life properly adjusted a man's theology will take care of itself. In this particular the evangelist shows himself a modern thinker and commands his work to the practical man of this practical age. He silences all criticisms when he shows himself to be more interested in the things that go to make a noble manhood or womanhood than in the things that have separated churches and divided Christendom. Character is of far more importance than theology, life is of more consequence than theory, conduct than doctrine, and when a company of churches rises above doctrinal differences and unite their forces in an effort to get people to live better lives they show themselves public benefactors and demonstrate before the world their right to live.

Citizens Co-operating
The ministers who have this meeting in charge are glad to testify to the cordial co-operation which has been given by the citizens. There has been asked no favor but has been willingly granted. About seventy persons have publicly expressed a determination to live a Christian life. This in no way registers the amount of good which has been accomplished in the way of inspiration to nobler things on the part of hundreds of people in the audience. If you have a friend whom you would like to see started toward a better life bring him to the meetings.

Cast of characters: Ausdorf, ein rechter Privatmann, U. P. Davis; Katharina, seine Frau, Gelsminna M. Brown; Alfred, Allen B. West; Emma, seine Gattin, Anna T. Plumb; Heinrich and Lisbeth, in Alfred's Diensten, E. H. Clarke and Clarissa Wheeler. Violin Solo—Lillian V. Babcock. Class Song: Synopsis of the play: Heinrich and Lisbeth, who are servants, evidently have been married, are engaged in setting the table for breakfast. When this is finished Heinrich says, very well pleased, "Gott sei Dank der Tisch ist gedeckt," and he asks Lisbeth to say it, also. She refuses and he insists upon it, trying to compel her, but she becomes obstinate and refuses absolutely to say the words. During the quarrel Alfred, the master, comes in and watches them for a short time unobserved. After the exit of the servants Emma enters, recently married. When he has assured her of his constancy he tells her about the quarrel of the servants, saying that he is sure such a thing could not occur between them. So as proof he asks her to say, "Gott sei Dank der Tisch ist gedeckt." She refuses to accede to such a foolish request and when he insists she begins to weep. In various ways he tries to persuade her. Then the presence of Ausdorf and Katharina, the father and mother of Emma, is announced. They enter. As they commence the meal Ausdorf proposes the toast, "Many such days as the present," and Emma does not drink it. Immediately he sees that something is wrong and inquiring into the matter learns the cause. Ausdorf is confident that his dear wife Katharina would do anything he wishes and says that she would surely be willing to say "Gott sei Dank der Tisch ist gedeckt," but she will not. So they all rise from the table. Emma and Katharina taking sides against Ausdorf and Alfred. But at last Alfred proposes to end it as a joke and makes a present to Emma as a peace offering. She then readily says the words. Katharina attempts to get Ausdorf to do the same by her, but fails. Then enter Heinrich and Lisbeth. The others beg them to end their strife. By mistake Katharina says the luckless sentence and then Lisbeth who has constantly refused, upon the promise from her mistress of an early marriage says, "Gott sei Dank der Tisch ist gedeckt."

SCHOOL ALUMNI HELD GATHERING

STATE SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND PLACE OF MEETING.

OLD GRADUATES RENEW

Friendship Made During Their School Life at State Institute Here.

The Alumni association of the State School for the Blind closed a three days' session at the state building with a banquet last evening. About seventy old pupils were in attendance, and enjoyed the opportunity of renewing acquaintance.

Many of these were pupils under Mrs. Little's administration, and the most of them are self-supporting. The school has graduated 29 piano-tuners during the past ten years, and all of them are at work; the most of them doing well.

Mr. Hersey, the blind teacher who put this department on its feet, is now at the head of the tuning force in a Rockford factory. His successor, Mr. Harvey, also a fine teacher, has accepted a position in the New York city school, and started for the east this morning.

Mrs. Jones, the old piano teacher, has been granted a leave of absence, and goes abroad with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Adams of Oberlin, Ohio, early in July. They will spend the summer in Norway and then go to Berlin and study for several months.

Mr. Kausterman of the Milwaukee Industrial School for the Blind, was in attendance at the meetings and read an interesting paper. The specialty of this school is willow work, and it is proving a successful industry. The men employed soon become expert and make a comfortable living. The state aids to a limited extent, but should do more, as the work is worthy of every encouragement. It helps blind people to help themselves and this is the broadest and most intelligent charity.

Superintendent Mrs. Clark gained the love of the association by cordial entertainment and interest in the work. Their administration promises to be successful and will be if they are given time to develop the work. The school has had three new superintendents during the past five years and that is two too many for the best good of the institution.

THE PRINCESS VELOPES

By HAROLD MACGRATH
AUTHOR OF "THE MAN ON THE MOON"
"HEARTS AND MASKS," ETC.

This seemed to be answer enough. She extended her hand in a royal fashion. I took it in one of mine, bent and kissed it respectfully. Apparently she had expected the old-fashioned handshake familiar to our common race, for I observed that she started as my lips came into contact with the back of her hand. As for me, when my lips touched the satin flesh I knew that it was all over.

"Your highness!" she called. The princess returned. She looked at me with a mixture of fierceness and defiance, humility and supplication. I had always supposed her to be a sort of hobbledoy; instead, she was one of those rare creatures who possess all the varying moods of the sex. I could readily imagine all the young fellows falling violently in love with her; all the young fellows save one. I glanced furtively at the Honorable Betty.

"He knows all?" asked her highness, her chin tilted aggressively.

"Everything."

"What must you think of me?" There was that in her highness' tone which dared me to express any opinion that was not totally complimentary.

"I am not sufficiently well-born to pass an opinion upon your highness' actions," I replied, with excusable irony.

"Excellent!" she exclaimed. "I have grown weary of sycophants. You are not afraid of me at all."

"Not in the slightest degree," I declared.

"You will not regret what you are about to do. I can make it very pleasant for you in Barscheit—or very unpleasant." But this threatening supplement was made harmless by the accompanying smile.

"May I offer the advice of rather a worldly man?"

"Well?"

"When Steinbock comes bid him go about his business."

The Honorable Betty nodded approvingly, but her highness struggled.

"Since you are decided," and I bowed. "Now, what time does this fellow put in his appearance?"

"Her highness beamed upon the Honorable Betty. 'I like the way he says this fellow,' it reassured me. He is due at nine o'clock; that is to say, in half an hour. I will give you these directions. I do not wish Steinbock to know of your presence here. You will hide in the salon, close to the portieres, within call. Moreover, I shall have to impose upon you the disagreeable duty of playing the listener. Let nothing escape your ear or your eye. I am not certain of this fellow Steinbock, though I hold a sword above his head."

"But where are your men?" I asked. She smiled. "There is no one here but Leopold."

"Your highness to meet Steinbock alone?"

"I have no fear of him; he knows who I am."

"Everything shall be done as you wish." I secretly hoped I might have the opportunity to punch Steinbock's head.

"Thank you." The transition of her moods always left me in wonder. "Play something; it is impossible to talk." She perched herself on the broad arm of the Honorable Betty's chair, and her arm rested lightly but affectionately on her shoulder.

It was something for a man to gain the confidence, in so short a time, of two such women. I felt as brave as Bayard. So I sat down before the piano and played. My two accomplishments are horseback riding and music, and I candidly tell you that I am as reckless at one as at the other. I had

Difficult Breathing

Short breath, fluttering, palpitation, sinking spells are symptoms of a weak heart, struggling to do its work. It must keep the blood in circulation to carry nourishment to make flesh, bone and muscle, and remove the worn-out particles. When it cannot do this, it must have help. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure gives strength to the heart nerves and muscles, and increases the heart action.

"I am glad to say that I am so much improved in health. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me when several doctors failed. I think no other medicine could do for me what Heart Cure has done. My case was bad; but as it could be at times, I had difficulty in getting my breath, my heart beat so fast at times that I thought it impossible to live without relief. I was very severe in my left side, and my nerves were all unstrung. I had almost given up all hope of being cured, and I am sure I would not if I had not taken the Heart Cure. I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Miles' remedy to all who suffer with heart disease."

..Forty Years Ago..

Janesville Daily Gazette, Thursday, June 20, 1867.—A Large Mortgage and Some Stamps.—The Register of Deeds here has just placed upon record the largest mortgage ever placed upon the records of Rock county, being a mortgage from the Western Union Railway company (formerly Racine and Mississippi) to the Farmers' Loan and Trust company of New York for $5,000,000. It has upon its margins stamps to the amount of $5,000.

Brevetted for Meritorious Services.—The Madison Journal is glad to learn that Capt. D. L. Noggle, formerly of the 4th Wisconsin battery, has received from the War Department a brevet commission as Major, for "gallant and meritorious services at Darbytown, Va., Oct. 7, 1864," when the 4th Battery rendered most valuable service in resisting the attack of the enemy, Capt. Noggle inciting the men by his words and example to stand by their guns and give the rebels a little more grape. The commission is a deserved compliment to the gallant young officer.

The Crops.—The look that we have recently taken through the towns of Rock, Turtle, Center, La Prairie, Harmony, Beloit, Bradford and Johnson, convinces us that there was never such promise of an abundant harvest of wheat, rye, oats, barley and hay as at the present time. We saw on the trip thousands of acres of wheat and oats that literally cover the ground as the water covers the great deep, and apprehensions are entertained in some localities of an excessive growth of straw, if the present forcing and delightful weather continues. If nothing unfavorable happens during the next sixty days, the farmers of Southern Wisconsin will harvest more bushels of small grain than ever before since the country was settled. The hay crop will be absolutely prodigious. Corn is backward but carries a good color and is making rapid progress under the influence of these bright, sunny days. "Time enough yet for corn," says everybody.

Before The Footlights.

Since "Texas Sweethearts" was produced over two years ago, other plays, very similar in title, have appeared, however this is the original. City Scene, produced with those splendid artists, Alan Villars and Pearl Lewis, in the leading parts. They have made a big hit wherever they played, and managers, press and public all agree, that this is an attraction worth seeing. It is now playing return engagements to larger receipts than ever and is good for seasons to come as a money-maker. The story is intensely interesting from start to finish, interspersed with rich, clean comedy and refined specialties. You laugh, cry and applaud. This is the only company presenting this play and the leading parts are in the hands of the people for whom they were especially written and consequently they are played consistently and naturally. Alan Villars as "Jack Harvey" is splendid and Pearl Lewis, as "Texas Raymond," is as clever as she is pretty and with her luxuriant hair hanging loose about her shoulders she is about as "stunning" as any on the American stage. Coming for night and matinee, Myers Grand, Saturday, June 22.

RESERVES RIGHT TO PRESENT LIMITATION

GEN. PORTER SURPRISES THE DELEGATES AT THE HAGUE.

MAY RAISE TOPIC LATER

Germany Proposes International Prize Court and is Supported by United States and Great Britain.

The Hague, June 20.—The surprise of the second session of the peace conference Wednesday afternoon was the formal reservation by Gen. Horace Porter on behalf of the United States of the right to present the question of limitation of armaments. Together with this, he also reserved the right to introduce the subject of the collection of contractual debts by force.

While this reservation was made naturally, in accordance with a notice served on Russia during the preliminary negotiations last spring, and in order that silence now might not be construed as acquiescence in the restriction of the work of the conference to the limits of the Russian program, it is believed to indicate a firm resolve on the part of the Washington government, after seeing the trend of the situation here, to raise the question later if it becomes apparent that the subject is going by default. It can be stated positively, however, that no proposition has yet been formulated by the American delegates.

Plan for a Prize Court.

Another interesting feature of the session was Baron von Bieberstein's notification that Germany intended to offer the proposition of an international prize court to which appeals could be made at the time of a multi-state war and the decision of which should be final. Gen. Porter seconded this proposition on behalf of the United States, and Sir Edward Fry declared that Great Britain proposed to advance a project on similar lines.

The fact that the first definite proposition submitted to the conference should emanate from Germany and receive the prompt and cordial support of the United States and Great Britain created an especially good impression.

Committees Are Named.

Beyond these two matters, the session was perfunctory in character. Four committees were created as pre-arranged and the rules formulated, except on permitting countries to vote by proxy, were adopted. The United States was given two honorary presidencies and Mexico, Argentina and Brazil each obtained recognition.

Elaborate precautions still are being taken to insure the safety of the delegates from anarchistic attempts as well as to prevent eavesdropping. Before the sitting Wednesday the old castle was thoroughly searched, and all the doors leading to the Hall of Knights were sealed. A force of 20 police occupied the cellar underneath, ready to respond to an electrical call placed on President Nelidoff's table.

Firemen Accused of Mutiny.

New York, June 20.—Ten firemen on the Hamburg-American line steamship America, which is due to sail from Hoboken, N. J., at noon Thursday, were arrested Wednesday on the complaint of the German consul. It is charged that the men refused to perform their duties on the ground that they have not been treated according to agreement. GODDARD TELLS OF FINDING THE BOMB

DUG IT UP AT HIS GATE WHERE ORCHARD SAID IT WAS.

Other Witnesses Corroborate Features of the Confession—Articles from Miners' Magazine, Will Be Admitted.

Boise, Idaho, June 20.—The state Wednesday made dramatic production and proof of the Goddard bomb, and besides offering further corroborations of the testimony of Harry Orchard against William D. Haywood, secured a ruling under which a number of the denunciatory articles published in the Miners' Magazine, official organ of the Western Federation of Miners will be admitted in evidence.

To Justice Luther M. Goddard himself fell the task of telling the story of the finding and preservation for use as evidence of the bomb with which Orchard tried to kill him. His appearance on the stand added another to the many dramatic scenes and situations that have characterized the trial, and his testimony was clear and minutely circumstantial.

Tells of Finding Bomb.

The veteran Colorado jurist testified that the first information he received about the bomb came to him from Orchard's confession, which was shown to him at Denver on February 13, 1906, by Detective McFarland. He at once returned to his home, and in his garage discovered the screw-eye which Orchard said he placed there. It was rusted and corroded by ten months' exposure. The witness said he examined the ground outside the gate where Orchard said he placed the bomb and found a slight depression with the soil packed very hard around it.

The bomb was dug up the next day by Gen. Bulkeley Wells, who used a pocketknife to cut the soil away and raise the pine box containing the bomb. There was a small phial on top of the box, and attached to the rubber cork of the phial was a piece of rusted wire.

Kept Sealed in a Vault.

The bomb and its attachment were at once taken to the office of the Pinkerton Detective agency and carefully sealed in wrappers and envelopes that were signed by half a dozen witnesses, including Justice Goddard, and after that they were placed in a vault to the door of which seals, including that of a notary public, were attached. There they rested until the following May 22, when, believing the Haywood case was to come to trial, they were removed in the presence of the same witnesses, and all save three of the 40 sticks of giant powder contained in the bomb were exploded. The explosions occurred in the presence of the witnesses at a point in the suburbs of Denver, and of the bomb itself 12 giant caps and two wrappers torn from sticks of giant powder were saved as evidence.

Senator Borah produced the several packets as they were originally sealed and, commencing with the phial, passed them to Justice Goddard, who broke the seals and identified the articles. After the phial came the little screw-eye, then the dozen giant caps and last the powder wrapper.

Mrs. Soward on Stand.

Mrs. Soward, at whose house in San Francisco Harry Orchard lived during part of the time he was conducting his operations against Fred Bradley, gave testimony strongly corroborative of Orchard's account of his acts and experiences in San Francisco. Besides confirming Orchard's recital as to time, movements and locations, she testified that she found lead and wood shavings in Orchard's room and a screw-eye, string and bottle attached to the closet door where Orchard had been experimenting. She said her lodger had a very heavy suitcase and that she made up her mind that he was an inventor.

John L. Stearns, agent at Denver for the Mutual Life Insurance company, confirmed the story Orchard told about securing employment as a solicitor for the company before he went to Canyon City to kill former Gov. Peabody and produced letters of recommendation which Orchard furnished in response to his request.

Love Hopeless, Die Together.

Bellefonte, Ill., June 20.—Lying clasped in death embrace on the shore of Triangle lake, a mile north-east of here, the bodies of James Bullock and Miss Cora Miller were found late Wednesday afternoon. In the forehead of each was a bullet hole and the position of a revolver between the bodies indicated that Bullock had killed the young woman and then ended his own life. A note, signed by both, briefly stated that they loved each other, but finding their love was hopeless, had decided to die together.

Bechtel Convicted of Larceny.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 20.—W. F. Bechtel, former president of the Northwestern National Life Insurance company of Minneapolis, was found guilty of grand larceny by a jury. It was charged that he entered into an agreement with Fred Sackett, treasurer of the company, whereby Sackett was to pay Bechtel the difference between Sackett's nominal and his actual salary.

UNCLE SAM IS AFTER A GIANT MONOPOLY

HAMBURG-AMERICAN PACKET COMPANY TO BE PROBED.

COMMERCE BOARD TO ACT

Combination with Railroads to Monopolize Traffic and Stifle Competition Alleged by Shipping Concern.

Washington, June 20.—The interstate commerce commission Wednesday decided to institute a proceeding of inquiry and investigation into the affairs of the Hamburg-American Packet company, which is charged by Peter Wright & Sons, general agents at Philadelphia of the Cosmopolitan Shipping company and the Cosmopolitan lines, with pooling and maintaining monopolies in restraint of trade.

The inquiry is expected to be one of the most stupendous ever undertaken and of a character different from any that ever before has engaged the attention of the commission.

The inquiry will have to deal with an alleged combination between railroads in the United States and the German shipping concern and therefore interests every American producer, manufacturer or shipper aspiring to introduce his goods to foreign consumers.

Great Monopoly Charged.

According to the complaint on which action was taken by the commission, the Hamburg-American Packet company has built up a complete monopoly of the east-bound traffic originating in Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Minneapolis, Duluth, Cleveland and other manufacturing centers of the United States intended for interior ports or places on the continent of Europe. The complaint reviews what it claims to be unfair methods in stifling competition.

The Cosmopolitan Shipping company, of Philadelphia, which figures as the complainant, operates lines to Rotterdam, Leith and Copenhagen. The charges allege that an inviolable trust in transatlantic freight carrying exists between the Hamburg-American Packet company, the North German Lloyd, Scandinavian-American line and the Wilson (Hull) line, and that this pool apportions the volume of traffic each of its members shall carry, and from what port or ports each line shall make its sailings, thus involving the apportionment of traffic originating in western cities—both as to character and amount—between the cities of the North Atlantic seaboard.

Question Is International.

In charging that the Hamburg-American Packet company, in its almost absolute control of east-bound and west-bound traffic between interior points of the United States and Hamburg, is a monopoly in restraint of trade, the complaining company raises an international question. The allegation is made that the foreign corporation is backed by the German government, dictates terms, routes and rates to shippers all over the United States who forward goods to Baltic ports, diverts freight to and from American ports at its own will without regard to the natural flow of trade, and uses coercive and unlawful methods to crush competition.

Summary of Charges.

The charges are summed up as follows:

First—That the Hamburg-American Packet company is a monopoly in restraint of trade, exercising through its contracts the power to control traffic, both east-bound and west-bound, between Hamburg and interior cities in the United States and to determine the rates and routes of such traffic.

Second—That the "Baltic pool," of which the Hamburg-American Packet company is the controlling factor, is a combine in restraint of trade, dictating the percentages of traffic from interior cities of the United States to Baltic points, which shall flow through each of the North Atlantic ports mentioned, to the end that each of the lines composing the pool may receive its allotted proportion of the business and no more.

Four other charges are made, divided as follows: That the effect of the differentials which place American ports on an equality is nullified by the pool's arbitrary division of the traffic; that the acts complained of are in violation of the laws of the United States; that efforts to rehabilitate the American merchant marine are hampered and rendered abortive by this monopoly; and finally, that there is little use in legislation for the benefit of the American shipping, "if at the same time we allow our present laws to be violated by an unscrupulous foreign corporation in its effort to suppress American competition on land and sea."
